

Changing the Way We Teach: Becoming a Facilitator in the Classroom 5 Part Workshop Series

As technology improves our classroom setting, it has also changed the way we teach. This class will provide teachers with an open forum to discuss and create collaborative lessons based on a facilitation classroom model. This course will take educators through different classroom models to find what fit works best for them to create engaging, creative classroom settings.

- ♦ Class 1: Overview of teaching styles and analyzation of your own classroom
- ♦ Class 2: Introduction to facilitation and ways to incorporate into a classroom setting
- ♦ Class 3: Letting go and feeling comfortable with facilitation use
- ♦ Class 4: Developing lessons for classroom use
- ♦ Class 5: Sharing of lesson plans and discussion of creating a collaborative classroom
